The screenshot shows the 'Create Account' page for Otter AI. At the top, there's a large blue 'Otter' logo. Below it, the heading 'Create Account' is displayed. A sub-instruction 'Sync your work calendar to start using Otter' is followed by two social sign-in buttons: 'Continue with Google' (with a Google icon) and 'Continue with Microsoft' (with a Microsoft icon). A horizontal line with the text 'OR' in the center separates these from a red-bordered email input field labeled 'Email'. Below the input field, a red error message says 'Valid email required'. At the bottom, a grey button with the text 'Create account' is visible. To the right of the main form, there's a testimonial featuring a photo of Megan Huynh, a Product Manager, with the quote: "'Otter has really boosted my confidence in my work because now I know that every user interview I conduct is stored somewhere for me always to look back to.'". Below the testimonial, the section 'Featured on:' is shown with logos for 'The New York Times', 'TechCrunch', 'FASTCOMPANY', 'WIRED', and 'Mashable'.

The screenshot shows a user profile page. On the left is a vertical sidebar with a red border. At the top of the sidebar is a blue circular icon with white text. Below it is a small circular profile picture of a woman. Further down are four small icons: a document with a plus sign, a list, a document, and another list. In the center is a modal window titled "Edit". It contains a circular profile picture of the same woman, followed by the text "Overrated is overrated". Below this are four input fields: "Email" (salena@gomez.com), "Password" (salenagomez), "Role" (Select Role), and "Department" (CS).
